INTERNET HUMOR

(THESE MAY OR MAY NOT BE TRUE, BUT THE INCIDENTS ARE OUT ON THE INTERNET.)

A Washington, DC air ticket agent tells of experiences he has had with leaders of government or their staff in our nation's capitol. When calling to make travel plans by air, the ticket agents handle many calls with tact and grace.

A New Hampshire Congresswoman asked for an aisle seat so her hair wouldn't get messed up by sitting near an airplane window.

A phone call was received from a staffer of a Kansas Congressman's office. The staffer stated air tickets were needed for a trip to Capetown. The ticket agent started to explain the process of the flight (length of flight, need for a visa and passport) when the staffer interrupted him. The caller insisted that Capetown is in Massachusetts. The ticket agent explained that Capetown is in South Africa and Cape Cod is in Massachusetts and the caller hung up, not completing the booking process.
